JEMASA

Hakvoort's 50-meter JeMaSa was designed collaboratively by Espen Øino and Diana Yacht Design, and she is ideal for charter. Her deck spaces can be enjoyed whatever the climate. In warm weather, the upper deck shades the aft deck. In strong winds or colder temperatures, however, it can be screened off on both sides and the entire deck can be closed up. She is especially fun in the tropics, thanks to her large sun deck, gym, Jacuzzi, myriad outdoor lounging and dining opportunities, and a garage full of water toys. One particularly enticing kid item is a slide that extends down from the top deck. JeMaSa accommodates 12 guests in five cabins, including a full-beam master suite. Contact The Sacks Group Yachting Professionals at 954-764-7742 or jennifer@sacksyachts.com; Merle Wood & Associates at 954-525-5111 or pcroke@merlewood.com. Price per week: $275,000.

PASSION

The 173-foot Swedeship Passion appears to be the only yacht of her kind on the charter market with a second upper-deck salon housing a video arcade that sports classic games such as Conquest, Golden Tee and Galaga, plus an air hockey table, karaoke system, professional card table, a large selection of board games and a full-size bar. If all this gaming isn't enough, adjoining the entertainment salon is a common area that doubles as a movie theater, with an enormous 72-inch retractable plasma screen TV and cinema-quality surround sound. For restricted-mobility guests, Passion's automated stair-climbing seat provides easy movement between the main and upper decks. There is also an ensuite gym on board, with a steam shower room. Passion accommodates 12 guests in six staterooms, two of which are full-beam master suites. Contact Yachtzoo at 954-767-1035 or jessica@yacht-zoo.com; +377 9770 5200 or kirsten@yacht-zoo.com. Price per week: $235,000 (low)/$290,000 (high). »
