■ JAMAICA BAY

Mick Jagger (and the rest of the Rolling Stones) slept here—so the story goes—and like other guests before and since found this classic yacht a haven of discreet and luxurious refinement. Built by Amels in 1984 and refitted in 1994 she has global communication reach, a brace of high-speed tenders, waverunners, windsurfers, canoes, a sailing dinghy, diving gear and compressor, air conditioning throughout a traditional mahogany interior with sky lounge, sun deck and a covered dining and relaxation area aft on the main deck.

Builder:	Amels
Year:	1984
Guests:	eight
Cabins:	four
Crew:	seven
Price:	US$165,000 per week

Outdoors and in,
Monte Carlo
has it all.

■ MONTE CARLO

An all-aluminum 1988 product of the prestigious Dutch shipyard, Amels, Monte Carlo underwent a full refit three years ago, emerging with a newly-enriched classic interior, new engine room and systems upgrades. For the guest this translates into public and private areas notable for their refinement and, from the technical viewpoint, enhanced performance underway. Two master suites as opposed to the conventional provision of one allow equal space for two separate parties. Generous open decks on the main, sun lounge and topmost deck levels provide recreational and al fresco dining options, with an open-air spa on the sun deck. Amenities include fax and satellite communications; a vast library of music and movies; exercise, fishing, diving and snorkeling equipment; a 33' Intrepid tender and a 19' rigid inflatable; four PWCs, bicycles and wave boards.

Builder:	Amels
Year:	1988
Guests:	eight
Cabins:	four
Crew:	eight
Price:	US$105,000 per week

MONTE CARLO

AVAILABLE FOR CHARTER

132' AMELS. This yacht is one of the finest vessels to be built in Holland. Launched by the venerable Amels shipyard she features accommodation for eight guests in four large staterooms. Her beautiful artisan interior woodwork is one of the finest examples of European craftsmanship on any yacht in the world today. Unlike many vessels of a similar size, this yacht can cross oceans on her own bottom in complete safety. MONTE CARLO recently completed a major refit and is in immaculate condition. MONTE CARLO is MCA certified and can legally charter anywhere in the world.
