sold Trinity's 37.8m Wheels, while Mark Elliott and Noel Vawter acted for the buyer in the 55.7m Benetti Allegro transaction with Merle Wood. Also sold was John Motta's central agency, Broward's 32m Freedom. The latest entrants to the sales list are Horizon's 39.6m After You, Trinity's new 49.07 Blind Date II and 43.3m Stanley Z, along with Westport's 34.1m Imagine.

Fraser Yachts announces the recent sale of three yachts, the largest being Baglietto's 34m Percal II, sold by the father and son team of Jose Arana Junior and Senior. Tom Allen in the Seattle office sold the 32.2m Safari Escape, built by Australia's Lloyds shipyard in 1983, while David Legrand in Monaco introduced the buyer in the sale of Arno's 27m Caramia. New central listings for sale include Palmer Johnson's 37.4m Temptation, listed by another father and son team, Jim and Jamie Wallace, at $12.95 million, while Jose Arana is offering Azimut's Mi Cielo at $2.8 million. There's more news of major price reductions as Danish Yachts' 35m Moon Goddess is down by €5.5 million to €7.5 million and Crystal Lady, a 2002 build from Warren Yachts, had a price reduction of $505,000 to $7.495 million. There are also several additions to the charter fleet, headed by Palmer Johnson's 41.5m Dragon, with four cabins and available in the Bahamas at a high season rate of $135,000 per week and a low season weekly rate of $125,000. Delta Marine's 37.8m Aerie, sleeping eight guests, is now available in the Caribbean for Christmas 2009 at a special rate of $60,000 per week. There is another special offer available from Fraser, this time aboard Christensen's 35m Ocean Pearl. With four cabins sleeping eight guests, she has an all-inclusive rate of $30,000 for four days and three nights in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico or Barra de Navidad.

Camper & Nicholson's reports several sales, including Carp Navi's 40m Commitment. In an in-house deal, Simon Goldsworth and Georges

Bourgoignie represented buyer and seller respectively in the sale of the 40m sailing yacht Mirabella, built by Concorde Yachts in 1991 and now to be refitted and kept for private use. Jeremy Comport in the Antibes office has signed two new listings: ISA's 47.5m Lady Dahlia and Magusta's 39.65m Aset, while Mike Payne is joint central agent, with Merle Wood, for the sale of Heesen's 43.5m Sedation. Charles Ehrard brings three new listings to the sales fleet: Baglietto's 42.75m Annamia, Mondomarine's 42m Trinity II and Mangusta's 25.1m Blue Trinity. CNI's charter department is offering some exotic cruising locations for the forthcoming seasons. The brand new 62m Roma, delivered this autumn, will be heading for the Indian Ocean this winter. Offering six cabins, she boasts an array of toys for active guests and an abundance of entertainment and lounging areas for the less active. The
